A year ago, Haley Ventura's husband died in the arms of another woman, but the man Haley can't forgive is her husband's business partner, Simon Foster. She considered Simon one of her closest friends, but he betrayed that friendship by keeping her husband's infidelities a secret.

Simon has loved Haley for years, but one thing he's never done is steal another man's woman, even if that man is being an ass. Telling Haley about her husband, however, would have been self-serving, not altruistic. He couldn't do it. Yet his silence blew up in his face.

But Haley is a passionate woman, and now her physical desires need fulfilling. She turns to a mysterious man she meets on the Internet. What she wants: her first BDSM experience. Little does she know, her mystery man is Simon. And he's oh so willing to give her whatever she wants, with a little help from Isabel of Courtesans. In doing so, Simon believes he'll win the ultimate prize, Haley's heart. Or will everything blow up in his face all over again?
