Traumatic heartbreak at the tender age of eighteen had Wren Mikael avoiding love and focusing solely on her education. Now, years later, a car accident finds her with not one, but two heroes coming to her rescue—including the very man who left her without a word of explanation all those years ago.

When Donovan Lowes and his friend, Alex, stop at an accident site, he's shocked to find Wren inside the wrecked car. The last time he saw her—naked, in his cousin's bed—he left without a backward glance. But Van realizes it's past time they worked through old hurts. Because the more he gets to know the woman she's become, the more he understands his attraction to Wren never died...and Alex feels her allure, too.

But happy-ever-afters are rarely so easy. It seems Wren's accident wasn't so accidental after all. Someone is out there, watching...waiting...and determined to snatch Wren's newfound happiness away—permanently.
